You need adrenaline,
You gotta go and get your some,
If you wanna stay beautiful and broken.
A couple milligrams, to get you through this life,
If you wanna stop the tears that you've been choking.

On and on, all that I've been sayin' is
Go. Go and live your life,
'Cause I can't save it.
No matter how I try.
You know I gave you everything against advice.
Lost myself now I can't end this co-dependant life.

You know that you can change.
You're sleeping at the murder scene,
Just to make you feel part of the unspoken.
So much for innocence,
It really messed us up back then.
Anaesthesia's slowly wearing thin

On and on, all that I've been saying is
Go. Go and live your life.
'Cause I can't save it,
No matter how I try.
You know I gave you everything against advice,
Lost myself now I can't end this co-dependant life.

Go. Go and live your life.
I can't save it, No matter how I try.
You know I gave you everything against advice.
Lost myself now I can't end this,
Co-dependent life.
