Hah, most high King Selassie I, Jah, whoa Dub dubba dubba dub dubba dubba dubba dub Hear me now

CHORUS

Our life is so lovely, yea fools why you wanna make it ugly, yea Our life is so lovely, whoa at times they try to make things ugly ha

Probing the streets whole night, didn't get to sleep and now the daylight coming on bright And things aren't good, so I'm gonna kill who I don't like

Bwoy disrespect and figuring its all right
I get my cell phone, call my girl, bloom like rose Get in the shower get me a bath, change my clothes ...pants, shirt, brand new shoes, going somewhere, ha she'll never know In order to be on top I keep steppin on them foes keep a track right on the clock, that's how it goes Never gonna stop until, them brains blow, hah got you now I shot you, make my does What the fuck you take me for? I kill you fool We don't play, I say we never lose Hey I'm on fire and that's my rule
All you fuckin enemies are my foot stools

CHORUS

Our life is so lovely, yea
oh why they try to make things ugly, whoa
Our life is so lovely, whoa fools why you want to make things ugly yea

The time had come for I to make a stand Don't you come in my way now, hope you overstand Comin from nowhere goin somewhere, we break the bond

With all those beautiful girls we correspond Roar like a lion yet I'm humble like a lamb I've got my aim and all my visions

I'm still the same, a black man oh god damn Money comes and goes still i've got my hands I've got my wife, I've got my life, I've got my fans I've got the most high who would take me from the sinking sands and put me upon a higher land, foundation began You never prove me wrong, whoa

CHORUS

Our life is so lovely, yea
oh why they want to make it ugly, whoa
Our life is so lovely, yea at times they try to make it ugly oh

Girl, sing you my song it is breath taking for you in my heart so much love created for you I was born a thug, seem inspiring for you Keep you as how I keep my gun they hating for you But all you motherfuckers I'll be waiting for you Kalongi squeeze trigger guns operating for you More life, we'll be celebrating for you We've got the ship in the ocean navigating for you
The golden chariot exilirating for you Plane in the sky to Zion I its heading straight for you Sabbath chanting bread baking for you Jah love communicating for you

Our life is so lovely, yea
fools why you want to make things ugly, whoa Our life is so lovely, oh life is so lovely.....
