Possessed by darkness
I feed upon the bleeding death
Dousing the fear that dwelt deep within
Now I know only the eternal
Lusting for an endless darkness
Joining once more the cold beyond
This curse I put upon myself
This I know forever
The abyss opens before me
I plunge into eternity
Chills of ultimate orgiastic
Impulses penetrate me
Pleasure beyond anything
Ever known on Earth
Frost upon dead flesh
That is rotting and fallen away
Drinking on all the wonders
Of the death realm
Cold necrodestiny awaits
Beyond this weak existence
There's nothing left in the death-fuge
Only darkness
I have taken within the only true power that man has
To die in the name of Satan
I have obliterated my life for that word
No worship ever befell these lips
There is no point
Why would he care
His was the kingdom
Of Earthly treasures
In the dimension
Where no life dwells
