Ritually baptized in flames
Rejoice in the purification
Burning flesh to cleanse the soul
Reborn through scorching cremains
My body writhed as the flames began their bath
Through this ritual immolation my soul began it's path
Baptized in the flames
Arise from the searing haze
Burning with the belief
Through this scourge I am deceased
My body writhed as the flames began their bath
Through this ritual immolation my soul began it's path
Burning spiritual disembodiment
My soul now discarnate
