Within the dawning summer
Hail of domination of light
The day which the begins
As the pendulum swings
Towards dominance of night
Burning in the sun's rays
Nights of debauchery beckon
I miss these times when not here...
Hate the flames of light
Imprisoned in the shackles of Summer
A short time for revels
My brothers, I implore you
Our nightly dominance concentrated
Envious light of our celebration
Seize the night in this short time
The Rituals begin at dusk
Ave! Darkness of light!
Ave! Dominance of night!
We speak the words
Celebrate the time we have
Revel in blackest symphony
Saltry air supports naked forms
Bonfires crackle in the night
Within the forests
I commune with the ancients
Lux Lucifer!
