"Awkward Girl"

There was a girl that nobody could approach
Nothing ugly inside
But no one wanted to learn
Condemned to autism
I couldn't let it like this
So I went toward her
But she ran away

She was the awkward girl
Always bothering always ejected
She was like a whirlwind
I'd sell my soul to see her closer
She was the awkward girl
Always bothering always ejected
She was like a whirlwind
Each time she comes here people disappear yeah

It wasn't like if I was going to eat her She probably thought I was like the others
Why were you been scared
Maybe a bit paranoid
I wanted to scream your name
For sure I didn't know

If you could hear my advice
Don't pay attention to them
Even though you're already far
Followed by the whispers

If I see you again
You won't escape me baby
If I see you a day
I will be there and I'll stare
If I see you again
You will be mine, accepted
If I see you a day
We will go far and never return my girl
