Ah mi say ever livin' life and prosperity
King Rastafari ah we culture and black heritage woy
Ever livin' life and prosperity
Rastafari ah we culture and black heritage

And even for my sons and my daughters
Honor thy mother and thy father
Length of days and we'll prosper
Selassie I is our master, yo

For the enemies are confounded
Rastafari power overthrow them, yo

No lamb to no slaughter
Payin' I to work for your laughter
Who trick the people I say it's the pastor
Babylon, you're a dirty bastard yaw

For the enemies are confounded, yo
Rastafari knowledge overthrow them, yo

What to do where to go, yow
Nuttin' to prove yet I'll show
To those who want to learn, I'll teach those yah
Ethiopia Africa is my birthplace, defender of the faith

I've see them all in there lurking place
For the innocent they wait, put up them trap in place
Hoping to see someone take the bait
Them never have no head space, to see what Selassie I create
Oh oh, Rastafari is so great, so

The enemies are confounded, yo
Rastafari come and overthrow them, oh

Ah mi say ever livin' life and prosperity
King Selassie ah we culture and black heritage woy
Ever livin' life and prosperity
Rastafari ah we culture and black heritage

Oh, the enemies are confounded, yo

Rastafari power overthrow them, yo

And even for my sons and my daughters, yeah
Honor thy mother and father
Length of days and we all shall prosper
Rastafari is our master

And I am no lamb to no slaughter
The worth of Rasta is not mocked with no laughter
Who trick the people I say it's the pastor
Babylon, you're a dirty bastard

For the enemies are confounded, yo
And all those wicked ones that crowned them, oh
The enemies are confounded, yeah
Rastafari come and overthrow them, yeah

Ah mi say ever livin' life and prosperity
Rastafari is I culture and black heritage, whoa
Ever livin' life and prosperity
Rastafari is I culture and black heritage, yeah

Ever livin' life and prosperity
Rastafari is I culture and black heritage, yo
Ever livin' life and prosperity
Rastafari is I culture and black heritage, yo

And the enemies are confounded, yo
Rastafari come and overthrow them
And the enemies are confounded, yo
Rastafari come and overthrow them
