Well I say woe onto those who are wise in there own eyes

Yet things will be alright, oh culture

Living in Rome my people how safe you are away from your home I say you're oh so far He has been crowned for fighting so many wars Black belongs to the throne Melchizedek read the stars red gold and green honors the earth, fill my heart with joy
You unfold, prince and princess makes your convoy
The land of love filled with righteousness for I and I keep I safe in your arms Emperor Selassie I

Hail King Selassie, Ethiopia's own devine majesty Emanuel, holy, holy Take us home Marcus Garvey

First ancient King of creation, from the western hemisphere askin for repatriation cunning words no source of inspiration causing hurt devising trap on the nation In there own self will they kill to make it high I and I, marketin Black people when I saw my rights Open your eyes, yo
