Intro:

Well, I say bless the man that reveal all the truth you know

Unto this generation

Those with them eye and has never over-stand

Chorus:

Oh children, Babylon build them cities

And break their own laws

So long you've been amongst them

Yet they didn't teach you that the fools get caught

So take us to the place where

Justice embedded in our heart, truly ours

Etiopia he was born there

Emperor Selassie I they all fail to adore

Verse 1:

Oh judgement

We the people must be true to ourself

Stoop to brutality, you perish and melt

Aware them have fi hide

What make them don't want fi help ?

The children going idly having no strength

Our duty is to teach

So you make it frequent

You no beat upon your shoulders

Here come the judgement

Can not be going that way

Killing yourself, what's the sense ?

Them young, tell them get the teaching from the high sense

Chorus

Verse 2:

Firing guns becomes disobedient

They know not from whence they came, so they rebel against

Babylon set it so, building them bridges and fence

That they may support them so-called government

Them instigate the downfall of Jah righteous children

Remind them that slavery was not an accident

In return they kill my brothers and my parents
Repatriation, bless how give them all the strength
Africa we deh come, so me hear the high sense
Mother Nature made us in the natural essence
Emperor Selassie I him rule all events
We don't care if them intelligence
Oh now

Chorus

Verse 3:

I and I have the foundation of the earth
Never been thirst
Black people
Now I tell you to stand
While you cease to be
And let them come and dish your dirt
Oh no they have lost their way
Because their desire was for fame and greed
I tell you now all tongue haffi go tell
Oh yes, all wicked man down on their knees
But now

Chorus / Repeat Verse 1 / Chorus
