The King shall join thy strength and in thy salvation oh greatly shall he rejoice Selassie I Jah... Blessed

Zion I love.. Oooh Oooh Ooh oohh

Yesterday remains the same
tomorrow is the future
The game they're playin teach us to be thankful of this earth Cryin tears in the streets no food to eat
They await what comes and thoes who cheat, provoke us to breach their laws,
so we buss tha gun

CHORUS

Sun shine today
We're always happy in love
Teach the youths them how to pray now
We're always happy in love, yea
You can read it from your book, no oh
King Rastafari is love, yea
Open your eyes and look now
We're always happy in love

Where there's much it can only be shared for thoes qualified they works
We the people prepared our selves they won't give us what we deserve Now we stand and take our rightful place merge my people merge
From the black King come them know say Selassie I is the rightful ruler for earth

CHORUS

Sun shine today
We're always happy in love
On your knees and pray now
Rastafari will bring you love, now now Open and look now now
King Rastafari is love, yea

You can read it from your book, now
Children of Zion bring you love

They spend their last on evil just to see you get hurt now He who sit in the council of the wicked to Rastafari that is a curse, oh Set us free as the birds, we know ourselves, as we are the first Needs no chain, Ethiopia is our name Rastafari quench your thirst

Sun shine today
We're always happy in love
Knees and pray now
Rastafari will bring you love, yea
You can read it from your book, no how
King Rastafari is love, yea
Open your eyes and look now
Children of Zion bring you love

Zion I love...

Zion I love...

Yesterday remains the same
tomorrow is the future
The game they're playin
teach us to be thankful of this world Cryin tears in the streets there's no food to eat
They await what comes and thoes who cheat,
provoke them to breach their laws,
so they buss tha gun

Sun shine today
Ghetto youth you're always in love, yea
Go on your knees and pray now Rastafari will bring you love, now
You can read it from your book, no
Rastafari is love, now Open your eyes and look, oh oh
Rastafari bring love...
So much love...
