"In The Morning"

You took me down,
And I fell a long way.
A gathering storm will change your mind,
And steal another night.

In the morning,
In the morning,
In the morning,
Try not to make to much noise.
Try not to make to much noise.
Ah, don't wake me,
Don't wake me,
Don't wake....

You turned around,
Looked away from my warning.
Its early now,
But I'm too late there's nothing left to save.

In the morning,
In the morning,
In the morning,
Try not to make to much noise.
Try not to make to much noise.
Oh, don't wake me,
Don't wake me,
Don't wake....

Oh, In the morning,
In the morning,
In the morning,
Try not to make to much noise.
Try not to make to much noise.
Oh, don't wake me,
Don't wake me,
Don't wake.
