"Letter Of Intent"

Visit "Letter Of Intent" on MotoLyrics.com

Silence cuts like a knife
Truth warps in the mind
The thin line between fantasy and reality
The split second that creates beauty this is a letter of intent holding on to what was never meant for me or could never be Child why do you hide?
Are you alone at night?
The thin line between hoping and believing
The split second that creates eternity
A glittering of distant light made your own so hold on tight When it's gone, move on I needed this one!
