Tell me what you believe will you kill for it then well see what all this anger means are you taking a stand or just part of a scene Flip the calender making plans
Time is now to take a stand Tomorrow may be the day you die
end of this facade you call life
Talk is cheap
So shut up Show me some action not just a front
Tell me what you believe will you die for it then well see what all this struggle means taking a stand destroyed the scene Following the trends to find where you land
Time is now to take a stand
Tomorrow may be the day you die
end of this facade you call life
As sheep for the slaughter were standing in line TV the Media perverting our minds Turn away while theres still time Grab the microphone time to realign
