The flowers didn't grow at all this summer
Through the cracks in the concrete
And the smog came in so thick through the shutters
That I could hardly see the street

As buildings fell in their same old fashion
To demolition ball and chain
Till just like all our love and passion
Only memories remain

It's a hundred and ten degrees
But alone it'll be cold as hell tonight
So you go out and light your little fires
You say it's out of mind as long as I'm out of sight

Chorus:
And I said hey
Everything gonna be alright
There's a better way
But it might not be tonight

Cause everybody loves you and nobody cares
Everybody's leaving but you ain't going nowhere
Girl I know that it don't seem fair at all tonight
But it's gonna be alright

Now these days the blues all look like black
And I'm making revolutions running down a one way track
Well I aint gone but I aint coming back and you know it's sad
The way it's gone
From good to bad

Chorus

Now there's something in the water
That must be getting in my head
Cause everybody is dying
Or there already dead
They got the drug store closed up

The doors they're all locked They got the streets of this town rolled up with the sidewalks
Where I sleepout on the lawn letting nobody in Just a waiting on the dawn to come around and break me again

As I wonder
When will it all end
When will it all end
When will it all end

Chorus
