Everything hurts today
Even sober eyes and flannel sheets
And I dim the lights and draw the shades
I don't do much of anything
Cause I fell in love again
I guess I wasn't good enough again
Girl I will never understand
Why you got to be so much better than I am
Cause I did nothing wrong
Or maybe I did nothing right
But that don't change the fact that you're gone
It won't bring you back on a Friday night

Well you're still the one that I'm dreamin' about Still the reason that I laugh out loud and how I'm all alone and no one's around
And you're keeping me alive
You're still the one I got to figure out
You're still the source of half of my doubts cause I Can't believe that you walked out and never even said
goodbye

And that was some New Years Eve
I passed out but not before you kissed me on the cheek
Then my mouth and it was off to sleep
More than I could comprehend
Now I'm driving by your house
And the memories are flooding on out
Through the holes in the wall and the door and the pine
Through the ones right here in the front of my mind

That's why you're still the one that I'm dreamin' about Still the reason that I laugh out loud and I'm All alone and no one's around and you're killing me tonight
You're still the one I got to figure out
You're still the source of all of my doubts cause I Can't believe that you walked out and never even said
And you're still a mistake that I don't regret Still the one that I need to get

Over by now but I haven't yet like some sad sack
Romeo
And I'm still nobody's Mr. Right
I still keep my heart locked up tight
And I'm full of piss, love and pride and I'm praying it don't show
But you're still the one that I'm bitching about to all of my friends day in and day out Like some broken record playing out of my mouth and it goes off like a gun
And you're still the reason that I'm out all week drinking myself into a heap
And wondering if you ever think of me after everything
I've done

Cause after everything you've done
You're still the one
You're still the one
You're still the one
But you'll always be the one
