Uh, okay, okay
Let me speak to 'em
C.B. double viva viva veven
Yeah, yeah

I aint fuckin with no hoe ass niggas talking this and that Running there mouth getting ballsy drinking liquid
crack
I'm sick of that my flows better than your written raps
So think of that the next time you ever think to rap
Hi I'm Clover Black I'll make you never wanna show
your ass
Make your blood ripple have your face look like broken glass
Ha, Fuck it, are we equal or not There aint no breathing from shots I smoke weed yeah alot
I make my dough be it illegal or not
So be quiet when you hustle on the block
You gotta cut all discussion cause the cops
Be listening alot wont miss you stutter on there watch
I keep it cool but very hot just for the beef
With an eye for everyone that drive and walk through my street
Dogshit, homie you can't talk
No one talking ish after I rip there heads off
Stay with a lean dressed in something mean
With your girl on the side cause I cut like a beam

Homie, C.B.V.V.

Who the fuck want what with the man let it out
I dont bitch smack niggas punch a nigga in his mouth Make his head crack nigga then get head up in his house

From his bitch cause J.Brixx got that much better clout Peep this homie like I'm twisting a jay

Whenever I talk you hear what all the listeners say Yup, yup, yup, yup, yup you know I got a forty ounce Looking on my lap and I feel my damn shorty bounce Six one seven eight one that's my resident Fresher than a peppermint my swagger fits intelligent
So high, I close my eyes magician and vanish
So smooth if I slip back flip and then land it Cause I'm sippin straight hot henny call me Mr. Doc Bentley

You can say I talk money funny I don't drop pennies Fuckin with them hoe ass niggas talking this and that Running there mouth getting ballsy drinking liquid

Sick of that my flows better than your written raps
So think of that the next time you ever think to rap
Hi I'm Clover Black I'll make you never wanna show
your ass

glass
