You've got the best in me

You've got the best in me

There's something in the way you're talking

Something about the way you look

It isn't just a flied out fantasy

Part of me you took

There's usually a price to pay

But I don't really care

The only cost is all my love

With you I'm gonna share

You've got the best in me

You're everything I need

I've got so much to give

You've got the best

The best in me

You've got the best in me

You've got the best in me

You're everything I need

I've got so much to give

You've got the best

The best in me

Ooh
