"Time Bomb"

Visit "Time Bomb" on MotoLyrics.com

Couldn't wait to find out where you came from?
Thought I was too late and your smile empty
Considered my life like a time bomb
And you exploded right in front of me

Everytime I think of you I'm happy
Never really wanted anymore
Or anything or nothing else
Couldn't see the wood for tall trees
My loving brings me down to my knees
I'm celebrating everytime I think of you

You are my rhythm, feel the beat tonight
Don't be shy babe when you know it's right
The clock is ticking hurry home to me
The door is open you don't need a key

Hold me, touch me, find a way
Share my dream and want to stay
