You and me.
We bend and break delicately.
A picturesque catastrophe.
A walking sense of aim.

But when I breathe,
The shadows creep inside of me.
My body loses all relief.
An overwhelming shame.

I don't want to lose you.
But maybe,
I can't be there every time you sleep.
When I'm falling on my knees.
I don't want to lose you.
But lately,
I know you need sweeping off your feet.
All I need is to feel free.
I'm no good at love songs, see.

Choked up vows,
To cherish and keep us tied down.
Our conversations drift somehow.
We smile in withered ways.
Shapes and shades,
We hide behind these masquerades.
We learn from every past mistake.
To lose it all again.

I don't want to lose you.
But maybe,
I can't be there every time you sleep.
When I'm falling on my knees.
I don't want to lose you.
But lately,
I know you need sweeping off your feet.
All I need is to feel free.
I'm no good at love songs, see.
[x2]

I'm no good at love songs, see.

I'm no good at love songs, see.
