So let's go and make the same mistakes that we always do
I do it for you
And it's hard to erase all the stupid mistakes we make
I just wanna be perfect
(I wanna be perfect)
Tell me what it's gonna take

These mirrors will never reflect
The person I used to be
But I can only imagine
Where my life would have taken me
I am a shadow of my past...

And it's hard to erase all the stupid mistakes we make
I just wanna be perfect
(I wanna be perfect)
Tell me what it's gonna take
To make you come back home
I just wanna be worth it
(I wanna be worth it)
No matter where you are

I have no fear of what's in front of me
Eternity, that is the only fear I see

And it's hard to erase all the stupid mistakes we make
I just wanna be perfect
(I wanna be perfect)
Tell me what it's gonna take
To make you come back down
I just wanna be worth it
(I wanna be worth it)
No matter where you are

And it's hard to erase all the stupid mistakes we make
I just wanna be perfect
(I wanna be perfect)
Tell me what it's gonna take...
