

That's Outrageous!

The waves are crashing down,
The sky is caving in
and everyone's sleeping
But we can close our eyes
Just hold on to me tonight

I held hands with the enemy
It's too late and this ain't a party
Say goodbye to subtlety
You can't speak, 'cause everyone's screaming
(Whoa oh oh) I'm alive and wide awake
(Whoa oh oh) You can hide
Just hold on to me tonight

The crowd in front of me
The way they all stare
Cannot calm my mind from uncertainty
This feeling of tragedy
Makes me toss and turn all night

Enjoy yourself while you can

The waves are crashing down,
The sky is caving in
and everyone's sleeping
But we can close our eyes
Just hold on to me tonight
(Whoa oh oh) I'm alive and wide awake
(Whoa oh oh) You can hide
Just hold on to me tonight

Now tonight is the night, yeah I'm ready to rock
I'm gonna chase you all around till you're ready to drop
Yeah I just don't think you're worth it,
Even though you think you're perfect
So turn around and take it like a champ
Well the bottom line is I'm gonna kill ya
While you're chillin' up in your villa
Poppin' bottle of Bacardi all around
While your body's no where to be found
Cause I'm that fucking good at fucking your mind

Yeah turn around bitch you just ran out of time

Bottoms up, we're going in tonight
Bottoms up, we're all in for a fright

Lights out
Let the panic set in
Now this is a party
Sit back and relax
And let the good times roll
Let the good times roll

The waves are crashing down,
(Whoa oh oh) I'm alive and wide awake
(Whoa oh oh) You can hide
