"A New Language"

My mouth is all dried up, my eyes are all shut We're speaking a new language baby, where words are not enough
I can feel it coming, i can feel it explode, action
reaction, overload
The words are all boring, why don't you shut up Cause we're counterculture fighters and they're fucking us up
When we talk, we hear the revolution, in our noise there's revolution
We will scream the revolution's coming, in our kiss we taste revolution
If we spoke like we've never spoke before
We'll rip out our tongue and watch it lose control
And i would never repeat the phrases that i was taught in school, yeah
And i would never repeat your inadequate roles and rules
That's just sick power, cause i have fucked it up Oh, oh my hands are tied baby, cause someone's all corrupt
I can feel it coming, i can feel it explode, action
reaction, overload
We're speaking a new language baby, where words are
not enough
If we spoke like we've never spoke before
We'll rip out our tongue and watch it lose control
And i would never repeat the phrases that i was taught
in school, yeah
And i would never repeat your inadequate roles and
rules
