Hey my sister where have you been?
I've been looking all over for you in this world where we don't fit in Hey my brother where have you gone?
I've been trying to recognize your face in this world where we don't belong
There is a light that's on everyone Shines on me and it shines on you-one day I will see it through

Hey that is what I say-We're gonna try to find a new way Hey that is what I see-a Northwest Passage for you and me

Hey my comrade strike a pose for me Overheard you talking about resistance and other things that might set us free Hey my lover cuddle up inside I wanna kiss you then I wanna hold you wanna make you mine tonight

Hey that is what I say-we're gonna find a new way Hey that is what I see-a Northwest Passage for you and
me

I blow my mind for you everyday Turn on your love lights and let them shine on me
