40 days and 40 nights since I last got in a fight What have we done? Money's on the lookout for number 1 40 nights and 40 days that's how long I'm going to stay What have become of the children that this culture spawned?

Another word for lack of precision Another word that fits for me and you
We are up for sale everything that we know is up for sale

40 days and 40 nights since I last saw some light
What have we done sacrificed our kids and loved ones 40 nights and 40 days is this the price we are going to pay?
What have we become, marked up and price-tagged everyone

Another word for the lack of precision Another word that fits for em and you
We are up for sale everything that we know is up for sale
