Well It's another fine day of the nation built
Well let's have a parade
You can dance on the graves and the bones of the children
If you know what to say
And you know it's begun from the beat of the drum
And the screams from the mouths of babes
And we pray as were watching the charade
Welcome to your wedding day

And it's a damn good day
For the heart and the mind
And the party happened in here
If you'll advert your gaze form the word on the sign
Let me wispier it in your ear
Cause the sign says run [x5]

And you know it's begun from the crack of the guns
And the screams from the mouths of babes
And we pray as where watching the charade
Welcome to your wedding day
Welcome to your wedding--

And we want peace
Yea we want peace
And we don't negotiate with terror
We don't negotiate with terror [x6]
We only make or break
And we know it's begun from the crack of the guns
And the screams form the mouths of babes
And we pray as where watching the charade
Welcome to your wedding day
Welcome to your wedding
