I just wanted to let you know that you will never compare to me.

I forgot how mighty you are.
You walk around like you're building an empire, but we know you're a fucking fad.
No words just brag after brag.

Is that all you have?
Just another excuse of how we got so far?
Does this make you mad?
Don't worry, we'll keep living the way we are.

Not one real thing is alive inside of you.
No matter what you say, not one thing will be fucking true!

I forgot how mighty you are.
You walk around like you're building an empire, but we
know you're a fucking fad.
No words just brag after brag.

Is that all you have?
Just another excuse of how we got so far?
Does this make you mad?
Don't worry, we'll keep living the way we are.

You'll find yourself amongst the shelves, but you're never gonna catch that fame.
Just take a good look at yourself, nothing's ever gonna
make this change.
Make this change!
Let go.

Is that all you have?
Just another excuse of how we got so far?
Does this make you mad?
Don't worry, we'll keep living the way we... are!
