Please won't you sit down
And have some cement
Some love for a chaser
And and a shot of regret.
Why wont you hang up
I would twist all the keys
This constant faking
Is breaking my knees

You wanted me to trade my fear for patience.
You wanted me to seal up both my eyelids
You want this to feel
So surreal.

I see by now that you
Are very complicated.
Taking back the insane
Frightened sketchy moments
You'll change by now
You'll see that you are
Wasting precious time
For only just a bite.

Taste the air
Does it help you relate?
The sulfur's a picture
Image of my face

You wanted me to trade my fear for patience.
You wanted me to seal up both my eyelids
You want this to feel
So surreal.

I see by now that you
Are very complicated.
Taking back the insane
Frightened sketchy moments
You'll change by now
You'll see that you are
Wasting precious time
For only just a bite.

I felt that love and it change my mind
And I crept inside as you fixed my life
Tonight.

You only wanted a bite.
You only wanted a bite.

I felt that love and it change my mind
And I crept inside as you fixed my life
Tonight.

You only wanted a bite.
You only wanted a bite.
You only wanted a bite.
You only wanted a bite.
You only wanted a bite.
You only wanted a bite.
You only wanted a bite.
You only wanted a bite.

I see by now that you
Are very complicated.
Taking back the insane
Frightened sketchy moments
You'll change by now
You'll see that you are
Wasting precious time
For only just a bite.
