I won't ask you no more questions
I didn't like your answers anyway
You might think I lack direction
In the things I do and say

I ain't looking for the score
I don't want your games to play
I ain't searchin' anymore
I think I found a way

Once I thought that it looked hopeless
Didn't know what I was lookin' for
Now I know though I'm nothing'
There's no one can show me anymore

You might think I'm a liar
You can say I'm a fool
If you think I ain't determined
Try to tell me what to do

I ain't looking for the score
I don't want your games to play
I ain't searchin' anymore
I think I found a way
