The character of this country can only be defined
By how we write the next chapter of British liberty
Your denial is beneath you and thanks to the use
Of hallucinogenic drugs I see right through you

Fuck your civil service and your jilted regime
This provision of bureaucracy smothers me
In your hands dysfunctional beliefs are concealed
You'll never realise they mock they take the piss
Policies that hypnotise smooth tongued liars
Never mind their bollocks tie me up with red tape

House of Commons no different from smackheads
Sitting on benches all the same
Eyes to the right nose to the left
Slave to the system where is the communist call

They take away your rights to keep your freedom
Cos terrorists are money for your policy
Now you can't control your own government people
They're financing murder with the tax you paid
Lies that hypnotise and smooth tongued policies
Never mind their bollocks hang me up with red tape

Why so absent minded exploit the working class
Anti-social ballbags it's all a smear campaign
All this I have predicted why do you fear this shit
Bastardize the peerage you're just a fucking cunt

This is a party election broadcast

Who do we fear
Who do we trust
How do we know
