A wretched point of view,
Disguised.
So militant and worse than any crimes,
We know.
So quickly they subdue,
The sky.
Our fascination cause human lives.

There's something within
Beating again
I'll never fight
Violent inside
It's taking away
Weakness I pray
Fragile within
You are a sin

Feeding on fear
Lost but it's near
Breaking my bones
Now I'm alone
With you,
Alone with you

I won't give in to the world,
It's fight or suicide.
Danger's in the skies,
We've lost our minds.

I won't give in to the world,
It's fight or suicide.
Danger's in the skies,
We've lost our minds.

An early warning sign,
Denied.
An execution crawls in your mind.

There's something within
Beating again
I'll never fight

Violent inside
It's taking away
Weakness I pray
Fragile within
You are a sin

I won't give in to the world,
It's fight or suicide.
Danger's in the skies,
We've lost our minds.

I won't give in to the world
It's fight or suicide.
Danger's in the skies,
We've lost our minds.

We've lost our minds
We've lost our minds
We've lost our minds
We've lost our minds
We've lost our minds
