I know your heart is aching mine is too
I know exactly what you're going through
So helplessly I've had to just stand by
And watched her hurt you so much I could die.

So maybe now I had the chance to try
To kiss away your tears and help them dry
So please accept my love and take the hand
Of a girl who'll always satisfy her man.

Inside my arms it's nice and warm always for you
And I know I'll make you understand
There'll be no doubt you'll never be without my love so true
From a girl who'll always satisfy her man.

So come to me I'll hold you tenderly you'll be in the hands
Of a girl who'll always satisfy her man...
