Everybody's gotta have a broken heart sometime
Everybody's gotta have a dream go wrong
Every tear has a reason and here's mine
He loved me too little too long.

When I felt his love for me was slowly dyin'
Then I wondered how I'd ever go on Till he made forgetting easy and here's how
He loved me too little too long.

Now too little lovin' for too long a time
Can sometimes drive true love right out of your mind
And that's how it happened
Yes, that's how it happened with me.

--- Instrumental ---

Now too little lovin' for too long a time
Can sometimes drive true love right out of your mind
And that's how it happened
Yes, that's how it happened with me

He loved me too little, too little too long
He loved me too little...
