(Don Robertson - Howard Barnes - Skeeter Davis)

How many arms have held me
And hated to let me go
How many, I'll tell you the answer
'Cause I really want you to know.

Other arms have held me
And others have kissed me too
But now they have all been forgotten
Since the day that I learned to love you.

I didn't know of true love
To me it was just a game
But I only belong to you love
So I am not ashamed.

No reason to keep a secret
What happened long ago
Don't wonder, my darling, don't wonder
'Cause I really want you to know...
