(Cindy Walker)

Singin' in the summer sun singin' songs of love
In a picture postcard world under warm blue skies above Building castles in the sand running barefoot hand in hand
By the shining shining sea deep as the love we pledge faithfully.

Singin' with the phonograph by the driftwood fire Cryin' when we said goodbye under misty summer stars Summer's gone like all my dreams that faded one by one
Still it's sweet remembering singing in the summer sun.

--- Instrumental ---

Summer's gone like all my dreams that faded one by one
Still it's sweet remembering singing in the summer sun Summer's gone like all my dreams that faded one by
one
Still it's sweet remembering singing in the summer sun...
