Take my hand and walk with me, we'll find a way
Look at all the people will they bend or break?
One day all of this will surely fade away, fade away

Help me as I lay here, won't you call my name
Hear me calling, for my life, what fear can't make
One day all of this will surely fade away, fade away

We're going back on all our days,
We were all messed up and so afraid
Of letting go, let me go

Take my hand and walk with me, we'll find a way
Wont you see right through my armour, take my place,
Crave to be the fire, how we'll never change, don't ever change

We're going back on all our days,
We were all messed up and so afraid
Of letting go, let me go

As we look ahead to better days
And we're not afraid of anything
As they close their eyes
We lie awake
As they close their eyes
We lie awake
