It was just another sunday night without you
Your a girl so special
Your a girl so true
I still remember december twenty-two
Nineteen ninety-eight.that was great
I still remember the look you gave to me
The first time I saw you I knew this had to be
Your the one that belongs in my dreams
That's the way it's gotta be

I can not even open up my head
Without thinking about those words you said
Togetherness would be so true
I love you.

Time and time again
I wonder whatd it be like
To just hold you for one more second of my life
I don't know what you were thinking on that night
But when you looked into my eyes
I know I saw something that had to be right
Time doesn't wait around to carry on
For anybody
I feel so dull.I need to see light
But that's impossible.without you here

I can not even open up my head
Without thinking about those words you said
Togetherness would be so true
I love you
