I Work Hard everyday, I wont stop grime until everythings kosher, Until i got the house on the hill that looks like the one on the holiday brochure, I want power but it cant be solar, i've always wanted to be a high roller, When i was young i had to get nikey i couldn't get gola, I had name brands when i was on ma stroller, I'm a big man now so wanna bow tie and a bowler, Forget P's like diddy i wanna make p's just like coca cola, For the big house in Angola, and the big Range Rover, And the P's legit so it realy dont matter if police wanna come an try pull man over.
