hey Awareness lets go to the mall find a girl put her in the group and get famous

Fuck it all let's watch it breakdown from the cocaine to the bookstores to the make-outs from the cops to the pot to the church girls wearing polka dots to the station wagons with new age bumper stickers back to the Catholics with porn under their mattress right over to the rappers that need some more practice they all think they're gonna blow up but they don't have any matches
this is for that girl at the coffee shop this is for that guy who only like's indie bands and thinks that I should probably stop this is for rap, everything in between and the bullshit this is for your ears, my lips and the spit covered bullets from the redneck bars to venues with stickers on the toilets to cities where I can actually see the stars cause the women aren't exploited from the good songs to the bad songs to the next one I'll write back to the 9 to 5 with only 4 hours asleep a night this is for disillusionment and hallucinations this is for the women that inspire masturbation she wont stop, stop chopping at my heart don't stop, stop chopping at my heart please stop, stop chopping at my heart
