Staring at my picture wondering what's wrong
My eyes look unhappy, confused and lost
I'm done
Don't be afraid anymore

Piecing back together, memories torn apart
Everything seems distant, what I've lost is gone
Don't be afraid anymore

This picture perfect life is something I can't figure out
I can't see past what
I'm feeling
All I know is what I'm given
When nothing makes much sense
Look inside you

This picture perfect
Something is hardly real to me
Am I all alone here, tell me what you see
Don't be afraid anymore

Everything incredible
I'm smiling for the camera
Don't I look so pretty when I smile for the camera?
And you think you know, exactly what I'm feeling
You don't have a clue how I'm really, really feeling
