There's a man in my head and he doesn't seem to understand my motives at all,
He just turns his head and walks away,
Bu I, I ought to know by now, I've seen it all before,
I ought to know by now,
There's a girl in my brain and she's telling me that I will never see her again,
She just turns her head and walks away,
But I, I ought to know by now, I've seen it all before,
I ought to know by now

(Chorus)

I'm hanging around with the big boys,
Learning to live with the real world,
Hanging around with the big boys,
Finding my place in the crowd,
But it's so hot in here,
I can hardly breath at all

Fast growing up,
Was it purposely intended to have cost quite as much,
you can't turn your head and walk away, cos you, you ought to know by now,
You've seen it all before,
You ought to know by now

(Chorus)

I'm hanging around with the big boys,
Learning to live with the real world,
Hanging around with the big boys,
Finding my place in the crowd,
But it's so hot in here,
I can hardly breath at all

Slightly dazes and confused,
But which ever way you look at it,
You win just to lose,
You can't turn your head and walk away,
Cos you, You ought to know by now,
A sigh is just a sigh,

You ought to know by now

(Chorus)

I'm hanging around with the big boys,
Learning to live with the real world,
Hanging around with the big boys,
Finding my place in the crowd (Repeat to fade)
