I see a collision heading up upon the horizon
Driving in the darkness, driving in the darkness

But than I looked at you and then you looked at me
Hope that there's respect you'd see
There's a fire that's burning deep inside of me
Hope that you'd look in and see me

It's three a.m. and the darkness falls upon the city streets
Lurking in the darkness lurking in the darkness

But than I looked at you and then you looked at me
Hope that there's respect you'd see
There's a fire that's burning deep inside of me
Hope that you'd look in and see me

I come home drunk and then I want to hold you close to me
Hold you in the darkness hold you in the darkness

But than I looked at you and then you looked at me
Hope that there's respect you'd see
There's a fire that's burning deep inside of me
Hope that you'd look in and see me
