"The Reaction"

My mind is racing and I'm already weak,
and your fast pacing motions are too perfect for that physique.

The stars are shining brightly high up in the skies,
but they're already shining in your bright blue eyes.

So light the fuse babe, it's time to take action,
I'm shaking in my boots for your reaction.
Oh can't you feel it, can't you feel the attraction?
(woah-oh-oh, woah-oh-oh)

Like a broken record, you'll scream my name;
but by the way that you expel it from your lips,
oh it puts the sun to shame.

Let's keep it up, yeah we're painting the town red,
don't you forget it.
Now let me hear you go...
Let's keep it up, yeah we're painting the town red,
don't you forget it, now let me hear you.
Let's keep it up, yeah we're painting the town red,
don't you forget it, now let me you!

Oh, when all is said and done
you can call it a sin,
but it's the sheets on our skin
that make this so much fun.
