Find

Words fade above the snow
The carved out somebody stitch
The carver's all who waves surrender
Through all tempers looking back
The skin begins to crack
Those ever double jointed blamers

Find

Closed off no power the wheel inside no peace
No feeling all disease around security

Eyes

Devise the cycles find
A call that's never caught
Beneath the locusts timed decision

Find

The vice grips never freed
A crease upon one's debt
And never paying forward

Hate

What will we won't be late
What will be left today
When nothing left to beg the moral

Fate

What is it left can't you say
Who will be left to pay
When ugly crippled eyes remain

Fine

Closed off devoured the meat inside of me
In freeing all afraid of life eternity

Eyes

Burning of sorrow deep craving inside no teeth
Holding on nothing left to be believed
Fear
What will we want with fear
The time of bombing near

With nothing left to have hope for

Pain

What is there left to say
An ancient plan to pay
With blood and shit tomorrow

Shame

We will be learning shame
Until we play the game
That in the end will bring disorder

Race

What will be left to say
When nothing is the same
And all this shit goes over

Where you... nowhere... like you left... go... where you...

Stepping out behind mask
Kiss the mercantile abscess
Run behind blood
The fingernails are dirty

Face the combination loss
And go towards the final cost
A cripple's desk a lost foothold
Suffering at the end scene

Fine

Closed off devoured the meat inside of me
