beat my head to wake up cause I feel as if I'm sleeping past is in the heart and I am waiting for the rhythm feed the holy jaws no saying pain is the answer after all is gone the story leaves me feeling empty and all alone

it leaves me feeling empty breathe, we are all animals inside free, the spirit is alive to guide us we're all alone and really feeling empty we're all alone

when all revenge falls apart taken a step back from the start leaves me feeling empty
