Death will kill them
Death will tell

First everything must recede
Then all will tell us to fear and hear the sullen respite clears into a time never wanted here

We globalize the others lies
We sanctify the great disguise
We globalize the others lies
We sanctify the great disguise

Reach through a life's test own
Being the worm crawling through

Death feels like a butterfly
Can't escape the scarred lie
Real relationships must die
Underneath a scar

Now I'll break on tonight
I'll escape light light
I'll escape one tonight
Gravitate slice slice
On the voice I reunite it's nothing at all
Once divided other sticks all through the eyes of blue

Reach through a life's test own
Being the worm crawling through

I'll escape, one tonight
Gravitate slice slice
I'll escape, one tonight
Gravitate slice slice
