its come to rape the soul
the meaning of control
it's waiting for
he's waiting obscene
in dark dishonest times the strangest things unwind and undermine the undecided fate

forced time
all divided
trips fine
line
warmth and craziness
lead all spilling
facing death
the binds that tie

push aside
unrelenting lips smack
talks
read the moving lips
willing pillows
breaks the neck
hung out to die

and in the steep of luck my god feels false and sold to exercise what seems that cannot hold craving

anything
whats goin down
replicate

left it down on to hit
what is it
nothing

thrust knives
deep the bed of it
why try

overcoming this
when the killing
shapes the wrist
paints the sky red eye

crossed eyes
undecided
shed time
lies
all because of this weather killing takes my breath a lasting sigh

all life starts with death all death starts with life ever circles back again ever falls to regain

all life is reborn
all hope is to know
righteous places
rightoues times
even though
we live to die
