in the rain collapse cross out which way we'll go the ever last while the wind attacks the past truth and times so shallow develop an attitude more time decay lapse in fortify the self cutter inbred and forever more faith bleeding eyes conjure pain distant do distant blood life take away cold the war fast forward owning self-destruction and all achieve a missile tests mortifying flash huddles 'round the radio and tube console to control lives are the arm (alive saw the arm?) levels of toxic waste disgrace intolerant all that's been done built up for a future race that's never won faith from god meet the maker's face distant book in time forever hate that's mine blown fuse shortens with man's progression decipher what's relative legal beaucocrat push us with a tender finger whose politics are those with an X man overcame further as you left him blind two gaping holes undriven carnivore nature's regret of all things brutalised and can it be that need no ??? on our way faith blood make face visionary that's all there is in a gleam halo all jaded weakness corruption runs harmonious begin by extremes doorway extinction resist repression is based on god for a length of time full of elemental powers inbred and no brilliance no fortune could buy this power
