alternative - mass control diversification and guilt jealousy prejudice

the courage to be themselves... often hated aims to make individual freedom spiritual bounds mental shackles to heal the wound of separation to question the unquestioning of the mind offers an alternative to mass control the center of the information war progressed

we have progressed physically as far as we can go... next stage mental

the process is you

justification decentralized by conditioned guilt fear responses realize
for individuals who wish to acquire sigil to the will give the mind before which is a function of the self to react and this focusing releases a tremendous energy as the concourse lowers positive flow of energy

so be it
the process

body like mindedness ageless souls
striving for individual matters toward collective goals a guiltless state of self awareness

the process is yours
