live within four walls scrape insect infested dreams cancer cornered worn accepting misery as a way of dealing within this complex fantasy which way or how to say is this ordinary terror force the rain boiling over lifeless flame fear pays a healthy wage leaves its trail in well planned pain crave whisper fall ride corrodes neglected dream scalding of organs slowly rotting in the time to understand a body degeneration reluctant soul search within a dying civilation fill cracks with plaster hides all unbalanced things a shade to pale of late features sunken in if all were to dissolve not to interpret literally a mindless mat that minds itself void of expressing anything that need be in order to believe then to substantiate by falling ungraciously at the brother's feet used solely to defeat back around it gleams time again terror nerves on edge no where safe to populate whose side to liberate genocide applied with subtlety terror shadowed dream no chance ending callous reign fear not rise up to stay the beast no moving frozen are the meek
