When I see you, look deep in your eyes
I can't imagine, cannot describe
Eyes so empty, without passion
Let me give you a little lesson

Come on baby, let you fall
Let it all roll

You don't understand my way
You don't know, the rules of the game
Don't tell me what I do wrong
Just let me show how my world goes around

Come on baby, let you fall
Let the good times roll
Let the devil out, follow the flow
You can't do anything wrong

Let me show you my little world
Let me be your devil inside
Let me show you the dark side of your own
Let me lead you to your final home

Come on baby, let you fall
Let the good times roll
Let the devil out, follow the flow
You can't do anything wrong

Let you fall- let you fall- let the good times roll
Let you fall- let you fall- let the good times roll

Come on baby, let you fall
Let the good times roll
Let the devil out, follow the flow
You can't do anything wrong
Let you fall
